

NORTH VALLEY FRIENDS CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENTS | AUGUST 13, 2020

Good afternoon friends! I pray that you are finding joy and peace. I wonder, is there someone you feel led to reach out to today? Someone that you've thought about or wondered about or miss? May I be so bold as to encourage you to extend some love to that person(s). I think that especially during this Covid time our personal connections can really bring joy to others. How might you feel called to bless someone today? ~Leslie

Prayer Requests

*From Brandon Taft - I am currently on a job and my work relationship has deteriorated with my boss. He has anger issues and it can be pretty scary. I have been the current object of his wrath. The situation could get worse because we are going to talk to our manager. I could use some strength and support right now.

*From Steve McKennon - Steve McKennon's niece, Joy, and her family have Covid. Things seem to be OK, but it's scary and they are all in quarantine. Prayers for healing.

*We prayed for Scot Ankeny for safety while he drove to Richland, Washington yesterday for Newberg School district work.

*Shawn & Katrina McConaughy ask for continued prayer for Lin, their friend who was staying with them. Lin has since moved out and is being cared for by a nurse care team.

*Lisi Jones asks for prayer for justice for everyone in our country.

*We prayed for John Russell for his surgery on Monday. His surgery was successful and he is at home recovering.

*Brenda Burg has her final week at the bakery this week. Please pray for the emotional toll it will take as well as the joy in seeing folks.

*Nancy Funk asks for prayers for her sister and her sense of safety.

*Casey, a previous co-worker of Bryan Boyd, her father is on hospice and passed away Sunday evening. Please pray for their grieving process.

*Darren Funk asks for continued prayers for frontline workers, people with immunocompromised family members and God's provision for all.

*Karen McConaughy is praising God that 260 staff and residents were tested at Friendsview for Covid and all people were negative - praise God!

*We pray for peace, safety and justice in Lebanon and Beirut.

*We continue to pray for all folks associated with GFU as they prepare for the new school year.
