ANNOUNCEMENTS | NOVEMBER 4, 2026

ANNIE AT THE HIGH SCHOOL - FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 6

On November 6th, we're going to see Annie at the high school! We'll leave at 6:00 PM and should have everyone home by 9:30 PM. If you'd like to join us, please let Stephanie St. Cyr know so she can get tickets.
A quick note: There will be no HangTime this month due to the play.

THANKSGIVING OFFERING - CHOCTAW NATION - NOVEMBER 22

It's November, and as our hearts and minds turn toward Thanksgiving, the elders encourage you to consider our indigenous neighbors. Throughout November, but especially Sunday, November 22, we will receive designated Thanksgiving offerings in support of Don and Tricia Hornback, long time members of the North Valley community now ministering in southern Oklahoma with the Choctaw Nation. The Hornbacks occasionally give--from their own resources--to widows and others in the Choctaw community who need financial assistance. We'd like to help! Mark your gift "Choctaw" or "Hornbacks" and place it in the offering or drop it by the church office. Thank you!

FIRST DAY CONVERSATIONS - SUNDAY MORNINGS @ 9:15

Join Colin and others for the first session of an eight-week focus on money and faith. We meet in the library starting at 9:15am. Friends are welcome to come as often as it suits their schedule and interest. This week's conversation will focus on "God and Money: Can Faith and Finances be Integrated?"
FDC meets Sunday mornings at 9:15 in the library (in the south wing behind the sanctuary and up the first small flight of stairs). Contact Colin Saxton if you have questions.

NEWCOMER'S GATHERING - SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 8

If you are new or newish (or missed the last one!), come to our Newcomers Gathering in the Fellowship Hall after the worship service November 8th. While nibbling on a light charcuterie before heading home for lunch, hear briefly from pastoral staff and an elder, ask questions, and meet each other. We hope to help you find your way into our community, and for us all to get to know each other a little more.
